DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: On page 3, line 7, “absorbtion” should be --absorption--. On page 4, line 5, “spong” should --sponge--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tang et al ‘193.

See title, col. 1, lines 13-18 and 59-64, col. 3, lines 35-41 and 61 et seq, col. 4, lines 11-15, 19-20 and 29-31, col. 5, lines 5-10 and 52-54, col. 6, lines 9-14, col. 6, line 66-col. 7, line 39, col. 9, lines 16-20, i.e. ‘193 teaches a bioabsorbable sponge comprising a porous body consisting of a bioabsorbable material which material is a copolymer of lactide and trimethylene carbonate. While it is the Examiner’s first position that the cited portions of ‘193 also set forth a sponge which is a surgical sponge operable for the intraoperative absorption of blood from within an open surgical site within a patient, e.g. sponge for hemostasis, at the very least the ‘193 reference teaches all the structure of the claimed sponge. Therefore, there is sufficient factual evidence for one to conclude that the functions, properties or capabilities of such claimed structure would also be inherent in the same structure of '193, see MPEP 2112.01.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's remarks have been considered but are deemed moot in that the '497 reference has not been reapplied.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Any new grounds of rejection were necessitated by the amendments to claim 1.
